

Dunwalkin' Driving School Terms & Conditions

It is agreed:

1. The instructor will make his/her services as an instructor available to the pupil for the sole purpose of giving the pupil driving tuition at the rate per lesson.
2. The instructor will carry motor vehicle insurance covering the pupil whilst driving the tuition vehicle accompanied by an instructor or a Driving Standard Agency (DSA) examiner.
3. The lesson fee will be paid in advance of each lesson. Failure to do so gives the instructor the right to terminate the lesson.
4. In respect of cancellations, a minimum 24 hours notice must be given, otherwise a charge will be made, as follows:
 - If the instructor turns up to take a lesson and the pupil is not there or chooses not to have the lesson, then the lesson will be charged in FULL.
 - On the first occasion that a lesson is cancelled without giving the minimum 24 hours notice, HALF the cost of the lesson will be charged.
 - On all future occasions that a lesson is cancelled with giving the minimum 24 hours, then the FULL cost of the lesson will be charged.
5. The pupil confirms that he/she is duly licensed to drive the tuition vehicle.
6. The instructor reserves the right to refuse the use of the tuition vehicle for the practical test if he/she believes the pupil has not reached a sufficient standard to take full responsibility for the safety of the vehicle and other road users.
7. We reserve the right to change or alter any of the terms and conditions without notice, but we will endeavour to inform pupils of any changes as soon as possible.

Block Bookings:

1. Block booking lessons must be taken within 6 months of the purchase date. Out with this time period, lessons will be lost.
2. All block booking cancellations will have the balance refunded in full. As block bookings incorporate a discount on full lesson price, the monies returned on cancellation will be proportional to the amount paid.
3. Any pupil not in contact with the instructor for more than 6 months will lose any advanced payments.
